

Raid On Reich Cost 64 Ships And 595 Men; Good Results

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
London, Jan. 13 (AP)—The flaming battle which a great force of possibly 1,200 American bombers and fighters fought over Germany Tuesday with the rocket-firing Nazi Air Force was viewed on both sides of the English channel today as a forerunner of the mighty struggle for air supremacy expected to accompany a land invasion of western Europe.

A dispatch from Stockholm quoted a German military spokesman in Berlin as describing the three-hour air battle as a "rehearsal for the German defense force which will have to meet Allied invasion air fleets."

The mighty raid, directed against three desperately-guarded aircraft assembly plants in the heart of the Reich, was also linked to the forthcoming invasion by Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of the U. S. Army Air Forces.

Raid Production

"Were it not for continuing attacks against the production capacities of German aircraft factories," he told a press conference in Wichita, Kan., "Nazi efforts to double their fighter strength might have succeeded, with the result that the difficulties which must be overcome by Allied air attacks and also by amphibious landing forces would be incalculably increased."

His views were generally accepted here, and the Daily Express declared the attack "indicates the United States bomber force based in Britain has reached a new strength which may soon equal the RAF's thousand plane (bomber) raids."

"Together," the newspaper added, "the two most powerful bomber forces in the world have more than broken the back of the giant task before them—that of completely emasculating Germany."

700 Bombers In Raid

More than 700 heavy bombers and a likely record fighter escort constituted the American aerial task force.

The attacks, directed against factories at Ochersleben, Halberstadt and Brunswick (Braunschweig), all within a radius of 120 miles of Berlin, constituted possibly the most crippling blow of the war against the Nazi air arm.

Results were described officially as excellent. In beating their way to and from the objectives and unloading their explosives directly on the targets, the Americans shot down more than 100 of the challenging enemy aircraft.

In addition, smashing of the factories means that hundreds of projected German fighters never will be manufactured, Gen. Arnold said.

Mighty Blow

The London press was virtually unanimous in hailing it as a mighty blow to German air defenses. The numbers and fury of Nazi fighters prove, the Daily Telegraph said, that "the battle of Germany is growing desperate" and heading for a showdown.

An Eighth Air Force communique late yesterday said the resounding assault cost 64 planes, a record loss. Fifty-nine were Flying Fortresses and Liberators and five were fighters.

In contrast, Berlin propaganda outlets this morning still were declaring 124 bombers and 12 fighters were shot down.

Gen. Arnold declared the assault rocked the Germans "back on their heels" and production at the three plants has been wiped out for months, "but we dare not let up."

"They're going to fight with everything at their disposal," he added, "and we've got to have more and more planes so we can deal them the death blow."

Although the 64 planes lost exceeded by two the 60 bombers and two fighters that failed to return from the American raid on Schweinfurt Oct. 14, the loss in American personnel on Tuesday was slightly less—a total of 595 men as compared with 602 on the earlier operation.

More than 700 U. S. Flying Fortresses and Liberators bombed German fighter plane factories in Ochersleben, Halberstadt, and Brunswick with a loss of 59 bombers and five fighters, it was announced. Some of the planes (broken arrow) visited Berlin.

MARION BIGGS HEADS SCHOOL BOND CAMPAIGN

Miss Marion Biggs, of Orrtanna, a teacher in the high street school, has been appointed chairman of the "Schools at War" committee of the Women's division of the county War Finance committee, Mrs. Henry T. Bream, division chairman, announced today.

Miss Biggs has contacted all the rural schools in the county in preparation for the Fourth War Bond drive. She is stressing the Blue Star Brigade, Junior Brigade and Honor Brigade.

Any pupil who purchases a war bond, regardless of the denomination, becomes a member in the Junior Brigade. Those who buy or sell $100 worth of bonds become members of the Blue Star Brigade and those who buy or sell $100 worth of bonds may enroll any number now in service in the Honor Brigade. Junior Brigade membership is limited to pupils in the grade schools, up to and including the eighth grade.

Other Leaders
Miss Biggs will encourage pupils in the county high schools to interest themselves in the Honor Brigade or adopt such war-bond selling project as they prefer.

Mrs. A. H. Barr and Miss Louise Ramer are the co-chairmen for the war bond drive in the Gettysburg schools.

Mrs. Guile W. Lefever has been appointed co-chairman of the Women's division group.

Mrs. Frank Kramer is chairman of the Gettysburg committee and Mrs. R. D. Wickerham is her co-chairman.

February 10 has been set aside as "Schools at War Day" throughout the county.

YOUR SHARE OF WAR AND PEACE COST IS $726

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Your share of this country's 1945 war-and-peace budget is just a fraction of a cent under $726.07—which is $577.33 more than Uncle Sam figured you had in cold cash in your pocket on New Year's Eve.

But—if the war continues to make necessary the spending of all that $577.33 more, President Roosevelt outlined today, it will send the national debt to $258,000,000,000 by June 30, 1945. And your share of that will be a cool $1,887.59.

These per capita figures are based on a population of 137,410,000 used by the Treasury this week in computing the $148.74 a person estimate on money in circulation.

This fiscal year's spending, estimated at $99,276,028,895, is at a per capita rate of $722.49.

FDR Spends 3 Times More Than All His Thirty Predecessors

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—The 12 budget messages President Roosevelt has sent to Congress will have accounted for more than three times as much money as all his 30 predecessors spent.

The $99,276,028,895 Mr. Roosevelt projected today for the fiscal year beginning July 1 brings his total of actual or contemplated federal spending to more than $378,600,000,000—more than $295,000,000,000 of which was labelled for defense or war.

From Washington's time until Herbert Hoover left the White House (including the remainder of the 1933 fiscal year for which he submitted the budget), governmental costs were roughly $112,000,000,000.

FIREMEN BUY BONDS; SCRAP DRIVE TUESDAY

The Gettysburg fire company voted to purchase $2,000 worth of war bonds during the forthcoming Fourth War Loan drive at the January meeting of the organization Wednesday evening at the engine house. The purchase of the new series G bonds will bring the amount the fire company has invested in war bonds to $4,000.

Voting to conduct the January Salvage drive next Tuesday, starting at 4 p. m., the firemen revealed they will be visiting schools in Gettysburg, starting at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday to pick up the salvaged articles gathered at the Gettysburg schools by the pupils and will continue throughout the week picking up the collections at other schools in this area.

The company spent $1,493.57 for equipment and supplies during the last year, the annual financial report presented by the treasurer, Joseph E. Codori, disclosed. The firemen ended the year with $6,795.21 on hand, the report disclosed, including the $2,000 in war bonds. The general fund's balance was given as $3,330.86 and the relief fund balance, $1,408.55. There were no expenditures in the relief fund this year with the firemen planning to build up the fund so that when demands are made upon it after the war there will be sufficient on hand to take care of the needs.

To Lock Engine House

Largest income during the year included $1,593 from the annual food sale and $1,069.41 from the state insurance tax return. Donations of $125 were received by the firemen during the year.

The firemen voted $5 to the President's Ball committee and voted to allow town council to lock the engine house providing each fireman is given a key to the building. W. J. Stallsmith was dropped as a member and Victor Palmer was elected to membership. Profits from the December turkey party were reported as $20.

Approximately 50 members attended with President James B. Aumen presiding.

The cast includes: Richard Starner, Martha Hollibaugh, Anna Orner, Dale Stock, Ted Slaybaugh, Pauline Herring, Mae Foulk, Robert Brough, Eutha Breighner, David Pitzer, Audrey Gochenour, Paul Koontz and Boyd Bream.

The chart will open Friday noon at Thomas Brothers store, Biglerville.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hollinger, Biglerville, announce the birth of a son at the Warner hospital this morning.

Frank Wetzel, 84, Goes Back To Job As Fireman

S. Frank Wetzel, East Stevens street, celebrated his 84th birthday Saturday, but he still is outworking a number of younger men who tried to take over his job when he retired but whose failure brought him back to the old job—full-time fireman at the Gettysburg college women's division.

The veteran of 36 years of service as a fireman at the Gettysburg academy buildings, now part of the college, continues to put in a full day—from 4 o'clock in the morning to 4 in the afternoon—shoveling more than a ton of coal a day into the furnace that supplies heat for the women's division buildings, and carrying out the ashes. He is proudest of the fact that he can carry the ashes up steps and out of the boiler room.

Young Fellows Quit
The only sign of age that he can tell is stiffness in the morning, when he rises at 3 a. m. to begin his day's duty. But in short order, he says, he gets "limbered up" after starting to work.

He "laid off work" last September after more than three decades of employment at the college. When the man who was to take his place failed to find the employment to his

Marine From County Wounded In Action

Cpl. James R. Stonesifer, 23-year-old son of Bernard Stonesifer, Littlestown, has been wounded in action in the South Pacific, the commandant of the United States Marine Corps has notified his grandmother, Mrs. Lucy A. Millhimes, North Queen street, Littlestown.

The telegram, from Lt. Col. A. A. Vandergrift, commandant, states: "Deeply regret to inform you that your grandson, Cpl. James R. Stonesifer, USMCR, has been wounded in action in the performance of his duty and service of his country. I realize your great anxiety but nature of wounds not reported and delay in receipt of details must be expected. You will be promptly furnished any additional information received. To prevent possible aid to our enemies, do not divulge the name of ship or station."

Corporal Stonesifer enlisted in the Marine Corps on August 18, 1942. He trained at Parris Island, South Carolina, and New River, North Carolina, before being sent to California for additional training. Corporal Stonesifer went overseas in January last year. In his most recent letter to his grandmother he stated he was in the South Pacific.

CAPT. HEIMER GIVEN AWARD

Capt. Roger C. Heimer, formerly of New Oxford, who attended the Johns Hopkins university in Baltimore before entering the Coast Guard academy, has received the Legion of Merit award for his "exceptionally meritorious" services in command of a transport during the invasion of Sicily.

Captain Heimer has served aboard 19 ships since his graduation from the Coast Guard academy in 1918. Last November, while his ship was returning home, he was presented a scroll signed by 100 men under his command, declaring that "Your untiring devotion to duty, your sincerity of purpose and your patriotic spirit will always be a cherished memory."

Captain Heimer is the son of the Rev. P. E. Heimer, now residing in Frederick but formerly pastor of St. Paul's Reformed church in New Oxford. Captain Heimer was born in New Oxford, December 5, 1896. He attended Gettysburg college for one year as a member of the class of 1918.

In 1918, he became an ensign in the U. S. Coast Guard. In 1920 he was promoted to lieutenant, junior grade; lieutenant, in 1923, and lieutenant commander in 1926. Before the war he was commander of a Coast Guard vessel.

His father last visited New Oxford in June, 1943, when he preached in St. Paul's church on the fiftieth anniversary of his entry into the ministry. Mrs. P. E. Heimer and a daughter reside in Texas.

Rites Wednesday For Mrs. Galloway

Funeral services for Mrs. Charles Galloway, who died Sunday night at her home in Hunterstown, were held Wednesday at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church at Hunters-town. The officiating ministers were the Rev. Earl N. Rowe, Methodist pastor, and the Rev. Seth Russell Downie of Hunterstown. Interment was made at Pines church cemetery.

The bearers were Edward Taughinbaugh, D. D. Brown, Robert Deatrick, Neely Taughinbaugh, Henry Hunter and Clair Tate.

Frank Wetzel, 84, Goes Back To Job As Fireman

liking the college authorities asked Mr. Wetzel if he would take care of his duties again until they could get someone else to take the post of day fireman.

He told them "I think I can" and worked for several weeks. Another man was hired and, after a week or so, he quit. Mr. Wetzel says he cannot understand why these younger fellows cannot keep up with the work. After a series of men were hired and quit rapidly when they discovered the nature of the work, the college asked the veteran to return to full time work.

Missed Only One Day
He promised, when he went back to work, "I'll stay on just as long as my health holds up." He has lost only one day since through illness.

"I feel better when I'm working than when I'm just loafing about," he told a reporter for The Gettysburg Times. And he intends to keep working just as long as he can.

He and his wife began work at the college after giving up farming. For many years he tenanted a farm near town. Since the death of his wife and daughter, Mrs. Charles Ecker, he has lived with his son-in-law, Charles Ecker, on Stevens street.

Yanks And Reds Extend Offensive Along Two Fronts

CHINA WILL BE DEMOCRACY IN FUTURE: IDLE

China will become one of the great powers of the world and will become a democracy in the future, Prof. Dunning Idle, Jr., of the history department of Gettysburg college told the Woman's club of Gettysburg at its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon.

He stated that China's potentialities—rich lands, great resources and manpower and its growing nationalism—will one day make it one of the four great powers together with the United States, Great Britain and Russia. Both historic forces and present day trends will cause the Chinese nation to become a great democracy, he said.

The heritage of the past gives the Chinese a basis for future democracy, he asserted. The loose imperial government of past centuries, and the fact that local government was largely controlled by the family, the village council and the guilds, led the people into a loose form of democracy governed by the elders. The Chinese nation, up to 1905, had a system by which even the poorest could move from "log cabin to white house" in the examination program by which the son of the poorest farmer could by diligent study enter the nation's "civil service" and thus become a great civil leader.

Promising Factors

The examination system is to be reconstituted by the Chinese in the near future, Prof. Idle said. Religious tolerance also provides a background for democracy among the Chinese, with Confucianism, Taoism (Please Turn to Page 5)

Urged To "Pop" Question To Save Gasoline

One of the Adams county ration boards is having difficulty in containing its curiosity about what happened to one applicant who came before it some months ago.

The application was made back in the days when "pleasure driving" of all types was banned. The applicant asked for a bicycle certificate. In the application he stated that he proposed to save gasoline in courting the girl of his choice by traveling by bicycle when he went to see her.

He assured the board that unless he could continue to court the lady despite the then current pleasure driving ban he would be unable to make a home for himself and for his children by a previous marriage.

The board informed him that while bicycle certificates were issuable for occupational purposes they did not know in what occupation to place courting and were rather hesitant to pronounce it as an "essential occupation" under the OPA regulations.

The board further advised him to "pop" the question immediately and marry the girl thus bringing his family under one roof and saving gasoline as well as bicycles.

The board has never been advised of subsequent developments in the case.

School Nurse To Join ANC Jan. 31

Miss Catherine Wagaman, public school nurse here since November, 1941, has been ordered to report for active duty with the Army Nurses Corps on January 31. She will report at Ft. George Meade, Maryland.

Miss Wagaman, who passed her tests for duty some time ago, graduated from Chambersburg high school and the Beth Israel hospital school for nurses, Newark, New Jersey. Later she studied school nursing at Penn State college.

Prof. Lloyd C. Keefe, supervising principal of the Gettysburg schools, said today that no one has been selected as yet to replace Miss Wagaman.

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

Moscow, Jan. 13 (AP)—Gen. Nikolai Vatutin's highly mobile first Ukrainian army, expanding its front on the Sarny sector (in Old Poland) to a width of 50 miles or more, struck out in several sweeping movements today to threaten the German-held strongholds of Rovno, Pinsk and Kovel.

The strong armored and infantry force of Vatutin's right wing which captured Dombrova, 20 miles north of Sarny on the Rovno-Sarny-Baranowice railway, fought its way through frozen marshland country to within 50 miles southeast of Pinsk, important center on the Gomel-Brest-Litovsk railway.

It already had passed the worst of the Pripiet marshes and advance units were approaching the high rolling ground beyond the swamps.

Nearing Mozyr

While this force was smashing its way to the northwest, a new offensive launched Tuesday, to the north of the marshes by Gen. Konstantin Rokossovsky's White Russian Army was approaching the city of Mozyr, 80 miles southwest of Gomel, along a 20-mile wide front. Dispatches said that German troops in front of Rokossovsky's advance were falling back towards Pinsk, and a second threat to that city apparently was developing. Pinsk is 140 miles west of Mozyr at the confluence of the Strumen and Pina rivers along the northern edge of the Pripiet marshes.

Using Sarny as a pivot, Vatutin sent other flying columns south and dispatches reported them operating within 23 miles north of Rovno, an advance of approximately 27 miles through marshy terrain to high ground beyond.

Other units reportedly were striking westward from Sarny toward Kovel, an important junction on the Kiev-Warsaw railway.

In the southern Ukraine, the left wing of Vatutin's forces encountered strong German counter-attacks east of Vinnitsa, but continued to smash through German resistance south of Belaya Tserkov. Further east Gen. Ivan S. Konev's second Ukrainian army, driving for a junction with Vatutin's group, scored additional successes against the enemy in the Kirovograd salient.

DENIES FORGERY; COULDN'T WRITE

Leo Nace, East Berlin R. 2, who told local police officials he could not understand how he could be arrested for forgery when he could not write, was committed to the Adams county jail Wednesday after removal from the Franklin county prison where he completed serving an 11-month term on a false pretense charge.

Nace was charged in 1939 by Private Joseph Bushey, then stationed here with the state police, with forging the name of William C. Decker, proprietor of a garage near Aspers, on a check for $590 given to Herman Shives, Mercersburg.

The East Berlin R. 2 resident was not picked up in Adams county, but was arrested in Bedford county where he was sentenced to two to four years in the Western penitentiary on larceny and forgery charges. He served three years of that term before his release to the Franklin county authorities where he was sentenced on the false pretense charge. He will receive a hearing before Justice of the Peace John H. Basore Saturday on the charge laid here nearly five years ago.

When taken before Justice Basore by Chief of Police Glenn Guise Wednesday to be committed to the county jail, Nace told Chief Guise and Justice Basore he could not understand how he could be convicted on forgery charges. He was unable to write at the time he was charged with the forgery, he said. He learned to write at Western penitentiary however, Nace said.

Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Jan. 13 (AP)—Virtually the entire American Fifth Army was on the move today as it broadened its offensive from near the coast to central Italy and sent French units hammering through 3,000 and 4,000-foot high mountains to threaten Cassino from a third side.

American infantry swept to within three miles of Cassino in a frontal attack with the capture of Cervaro at 1 p. m. yesterday after almost surrounding the village, headquarters announced. The Germans already had announced its loss.

Capture Peak

In the first day of the French offensive in the mountains of central Italy, Gen. Alphonse Juin's troops advanced two-thirds of a mile southwest of Rocchetta, 12 miles northeast of Cervaro.

They captured a 3,000-foot peak overlooking the road winding almost due west of Isernia between Colli and Atina, took several points on the 4,000-foot Monna Casale range and recaptured two peaks previously lost—Mt. Molino overlooking Acquafredda, seven miles northeast of Cassino, and Mt. Raimo, in the same area to the north of Vituliano.

The Allies thus held mountains overlooking Vituliano from two sides. The surprise French advance caught a number of German prisoners.

Jun's troops, fighting in some of the roughest country in Europe where virtually all supplies must be hauled by mule and hand from one peak to another, were threatening the Cassino-Atina road, one of the two valley highways leading north from Vassino.

Other Actions

On the Eighth Army front there were only patrol activity and heavy artillery fire.

Announcement of more details of the sky battle over Sofia on Jan. 10 between American Flying Fortresses and their P-38 escort on one side and 60 German fighters on the other, disclosed that the Americans had won a crushing victory.

At a cost of two of their own planes, the Americans shot down a total of 28 of the enemy.

Bad weather allowed comparatively few air sorties yesterday, but fighter-bombers in a sweep over the Dalmatian coast shot down two Messerschmitt 109s out of 12 encountered.

In Italy, American Mitchells attacked enemy targets near Arce ahead of the Fifth Army and fighter-bombers attacked the enemy in the Orsogna area. RAF Baltimore also bombed Palena, 25 miles southwest of Chieti.

In the Adriatic, British destroyers shelled enemy rail targets at two points along Italy's coast.

AERIAL ASSAULT AGAINST REICH WAS GRAND JOB

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (Associated Press War Analyst)

America's air-fleet administered a major defeat, physical and moral, to the Hitlerites in Tuesday's giant battle over Germany.

We have carried our attack to the very heart of Nazi defensive strength—a grand achievement. We have done great damage to three of the chief aircraft assembly plants of the hard-pressed Reich, thereby inflicting a grievous wound on enemy aircraft production at the crucial moment of the war when the Nazis are girding themselves for defense against invasion of western Europe.

Our airmen shot down some hundred fighter planes. But only the Germans know how many hundreds of aircraft were destroyed in the plants at Oeschersleben, Halberstadt and Brunswick. Only the Germans can say how much their warplane production has been cut down by this attack, but it undoubtedly is large.

"A Good Job" We did a good job. I hear a lot of folk trying to estimate the value of that daring operation by the number of men and aircraft we lost. Certainly a loss of 595 men and sixty-four war-planes, including fifty-nine heavy bombers, is a tough blow. But you just can't figure the thing on that basis.

When our air command considers such an attack the cardinal question to be asked is: Are the objectives worth the risk? If that can be answered with a "yes," then the project is justifiable. It would remain justifiable even if the attack failed of its purpose through no fault of our forces.

What, say you, would it cost in lives, time and money to battle our way across western Europe with a land army to those three German cities and destroy the aircraft plants? The answer is that every time we carry out a successful air assault we are doing the work of a great ground force.

Casualties to Come We shall have a chance to check on that before long, when we put our Army of invasion ashore in western Europe. And it's well for us to get our minds adjusted to the idea that we are going to see some very heavy Allied losses. Tuesday's unprecedented air battle was a mild preview of what we must expect at the time of invasion, and our casualties in landing troops will be hard to bear.

Two points strike me as calling for our special thought in connection with this air battle. The first is that, while the Germans are on the down-grade, they still retain great defensive power. They no longer are able to carry out the vast bombing attacks which they staged early in the war, because they have been forced to cut their production of bombers down to a whisper and devote their energies to building the defensive fighter plane. But their fighter force has gained in proportion, as they demonstrated Tuesday.

Need More Planes The second point develops naturally as a corollary to the first. Because of this Nazi air strength, and because of the increasingly heavy losses we shall have as we prepare for and inaugurate the invasion, we are in great need of more and still more intensification of warplane production. That's where the home front gets into the fight.

Do you know that one of those heavy bombers has more than half a million parts, not including maybe 700,000 rivets? It used to take about 200,000 man hours to build one of these big fellows, though this time has been reduced.

Last, but far from least, the Allied air assault on Germany from the west is playing its part in the continuing successes of the Red Armies. The Anglo-American air forces are destroying Germany's war industries and supplies, and they are forcing the Nazis to defend themselves in the air with power which they urgently need on the Russian front.

Given $9,000 For Letterkenny Farm

Harrisburg, Jan. 13 (AP)—A federal district court jury awarded Mrs. Laura Sellers, her son and daughter $9,000 damages for a 99-acre farm taken by the government for the construction of the Letterkenny Ordnance depot in Franklin county.

Witnesses for a landowner, in another suit yesterday, testified two farms of H. D. Ashway, Franklin county, also acquired for the depot, were worth from $19,500 to $23,900 while government witnesses put the value at $9,000 to $9,500.

"It is hard to see how you can reconcile these figures of the witnesses," Judge Albert L. Watson later told the jury before it retired to return a sealed verdict, "but you must take into consideration the interest each witness has in the case. Taxpayers want to pay only the fair market value of that property, not one cent more."

Eleven remaining land damage cases will be tried at the May term of federal court here, court attaches said.

CITATION FOR LOST SOLDIER

A posthumous citation of honor awarded to Staff Sergeant Wilbur R. Long, son of Mrs. Carrie Foss Long, 115 East Main street, Emmitsburg, who lost his life last September in aerial reconnaissance in the Southwest Pacific, has been received by Mrs. Long.

Sergeant Long was an aerial photographer and gunner. He enlisted in the service July 18, 1938, and was sent direct to Honolulu. He never returned to the United States after his first Pacific assignment five years ago. He was lost September 14, 1943.

The citation, signed by General H. H. Arnold, commanding the Army Air Force, follows: "Citation of Honor, Staff Sergeant Wilbur R. Long, who gave his life in the performance of his duty, September 14, 1943.

"He lived to bear his country's arms. He died to save its honor. He was a soldier and knew a soldier's duty. His sacrifice will help to keep aglow the flaming torch that lights our lives . . . that millions yet unborn may know the priceless joy of liberty. And we who pay him homage and revere his memory, solemnly rededicate ourselves to a complete fulfillment of the task for which he so gallantly has placed his life upon the altar of man's freedom."

CHURCH SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

Members of the Church school board of Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church participated in a "Dutch supper" at the church Wednesday evening. Arrangements were in charge of a committee headed by Miss Martha Boyd. Following the supper a song service was conducted by George T. Raffensperger and the monthly business session was held. Mr. Raffensperger reported on his recent visit to the young people's department of the St. James Lutheran Sunday school.

Miss Jeanne Spangier was appointed as a teacher in the senior department. Miss Esther Tipton gave her report as librarian and Mrs. Sunshine secretary. Miss Helen Hoffman, missionary superintendent, reported that she will conduct a special program on international missions, January 30. Mrs. C. T. Tipton, home and extension chairman, reported the name of Mrs. Grant Mace, Lincolnway east, as a new member of her department. Miss Frances Gilbert, junior superintendent, said the Christmas party which was planned for her department and which was postponed due to the grip epidemic, will be held in the near future.

The next meeting will be held on February 2 at the home of Mrs. J. Lawrence Blevins, Baltimore Pike.

PUPILS WRITE NEW HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD

A history of Fairfield, written by the members of the Junior-Senior American history class at Fairfield high school under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Geraldine Bream, was featured in the current edition of the Fairfield Hi-Lites, semester student publication at the school.

Twenty students compiled the history which fills the greater part of the 17 page mimeographed paper. Much of the information for the history was obtained from first hand accounts from early Fairfield residents who are still living in the community. It marks the first time a comprehensive study of the town's history has been prepared by a high school class.

Starting with the Indian history which includes the history of the John Hanson Spielman marker near Zora, and marks the site of the homestead of the first settler in the county, the paper relates the story of the Jamison family and the "White Squaw" and the Bard family, most of whom were killed by Indians who surrounded the Bard home one and a half miles west of Fairfield in 1758.

Other features "The establishment of Fairfield as 'Millerstown,' by Squire William Miller in 1801, the establishment of 'Virginia Mills' and the organization of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian church, the Evangelical Lutheran church, the First Reformed church, and St. Mary's Catholic church are related. Other sections of the history include the Civil War history, World War I, public offices, the railroad, business places and the high school.

News articles in the paper include reports that Faye Sites, a freshman, led the school scholastically with straight 'A' averages during the first two six-week periods; 1944 enrollment has dropped to 96 from 108 last year with the largest drop being in the senior class; and that Encyclopedia Britannica has been purchased for the high school reference library. Stories, poetry and feature articles are also included.

The staff of the paper includes Betty Jane Kauffman, Virginia Landis, Louise McNulty and Jean Musselman, editors; Jo Ann Wortz, Janet Musselman, Grace Musselman, Charles Preston and Merle Shindedecker, reporters, and Alvah Stonessier, artist. Mrs. Geraldine Brown is faculty advisor for the paper.

MR. ROOSEVELT ASKS CONGRESS FOR 100 BILLION

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—President Roosevelt laid before Congress today his second $100,000,000,000 war-time budget embodying plans for at least 18 months more of global conflict but at the same time reflecting preparations to absorb the impact of sudden victory in Europe.

For war activities alone the new budget projects expenditures of $90,000,000,000 in the fiscal year beginning July 1, on the assumption that the fighting will continue full tilt at least until mid-1945.

"We can not rely with safety on hopes of earlier victory" in making actual plans, Mr. Roosevelt said. But he noted the possibility that victory on "one of the major fronts"—obviously the European—might be won earlier and said such a development would mean that much of the money he now requests would not have to be spent.

Look to Peace

In order to be prepared for victory "whenever it comes," the President said that the essence of the government's program now stacked up in the budget is that "while we move toward complete defeat of our enemies, we must lay the groundwork to return the nation to peaceful pursuits."

Mr. Roosevelt summed up the budget as "the financial requirements for victory." He included a demand for "a truly stiff fiscal program" providing at least $10,500,000,000 in new taxes on top of the $40,769,000,000 which he estimated present revenue laws will produce in fiscal 1945.

He also urged Congress not to alter the contract renegotiation laws, under which war production costs can be whittled down, or the automatic doubling of the one per cent social security levies which would have gone into effect January 1 except for Congressional action temporarily delaying the effective date.

He advised the lawmakers, too, that his estimates are based on the assumption that the wage and price line will be held.

"I am convinced that the line can be held," he said. And he reiterated his belief in the necessity for "judicious use of subsidies" to hold down the cost of living.

Declaring that planning can not safely rely on "hopes," the President nevertheless voiced the "hope" that this total war program will never be fully obligated and spent. But its approval is essential, he added, "to permit our military leaders and our procurement agencies the flexibility they must have in planning and executing the job ahead."

Barring a European victory or other major development, the war program from the start of defense preparation in mid-1940 to June 30, 1945 will involve a total of $397,000,000,000—of which $292,000,000,000 will have been actually spent. The rest will represent unspent obligations in the form of contracts for future delivery.

Last Phase of War

Describing the period covered by the budget as one that will be "crucial in the history of the United States and of mankind," Mr. Roosevelt said late 1942 saw the end of defensive warfare, followed by "the period of aggressive deployment of our forces."

Today, he added, "with pride in the over-all achievements of American management and labor, I can say that we are now fully equipped; with pride in the military leadership of the Allied forces, I can say that we are now in a strategic position to make full use of our equipment for decisive blows by land, by sea and by air."

He said January, 1944, marks the beginning of "offensive warfare," the last phase of the war.

Seeks To Limit OPA Activities

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Senator Thomas (D-Okla.) served notice on the administration today he will attempt to narrow the field of government price control to basic cost of living commodities.

The Oklahoma announced he would seek to impose a definite curb on the Office of Price Administration's authority when Congress acts on extending the stabilization program beyond June 30, as requested by President Roosevelt in his annual message Tuesday.

Thomas credited the OPA with doing "a good job" of controlling retail costs of food, clothing and other necessities, but contended attempts to regulate the prices of non-essentials of every description had "harassed" business and created antagonism toward the entire stabilization program.

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—Clear skies this morning gave professional and amateur astronomers an excellent view of the eclipse of the planet Jupiter by the moon, an event that has not been visible from the eastern part of the United States for 48 years.

The eclipse began at 8:01 a. m., Eastern War Time, and the planet reappeared at 9:03 a. m.

REDS RELEASE BOUNDARY MAP

Moscow, Jan. 13 (AP)—Soviet newspapers today printed a large, detailed map of the Curzon line and a review of the whole Russian-Polish boundary controversy since 1919.

This presentation was accepted by many foreign observers as an indication that progress is being made toward an amicable settlement of the frontier dispute.

It was interpreted widely as an effort to keep open the door for negotiations, and the assumption was that the Russians are ready to do business immediately on the basis of the Curzon line.

(This line, drawn by an Allied commission after the first World war, was proposed in a Moscow broadcast Tuesday as the new boundary between the two countries and since that time has been under consideration by Poland's government in exile in London.)

In its review of the frontier question the Soviet press pointed out that the supreme Allied council at Versailles had agreed that the border "was to be derived from ethnographical principles."

This would have given Poland all provinces inhabited by Poles, it was stated, but would have continued as a part of Russia all the districts predominantly Ukrainian and White Russia.

Three Judge Court Rules Against AP

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—A special three judge federal court today restrained the Associated Press perpetually from observing by-laws which permit members to consider the competitive effect of an application for membership, but declared that the news-gathering cooperative might restrict admission on other grounds.

The judgment reduced to a formal order the court's opinion of last October 6 in the government's civil anti-trust suit filed August 28, 1942.

Either side now has 60 days in which to appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States and meantime the judgment is stayed.

Father Arrested On School Charge

Earl Shultz, Franklin township, was arrested Wednesday evening by the Franklin township constable, M. E. Freed, on a charge of allowing his daughter to remain out of school without a legal excuse. The charge was laid before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore by Franklin township school authorities. Shultz was released for a hearing this evening at 8 o'clock before Justice Baschore.

Charles Shultz, Baltimore street, said to be related to Earl Shultz, at the same time paid a fine of $5 and costs for failure to have a child attend the Gettysburg schools. The charge was laid by the Gettysburg attendance officer.

Report Sinking Two German Submarines

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Even when sighted by American planes, enemy subs are no easy targets. But the Navy discloses that it has sunk two more German U-boats, one after a five and a half hour battle during which 35 depth charges and ten demolition bombs were dropped.

Both subs were sighted, attacked and sunk by planes flying search missions from tiny Ascension island, midway across the Atlantic from Natal, Brazil. Navy Liberator bombers and two Army planes roared across the first, finally sending it to the bottom after the long battle.

A second sub, the Navy said, was destroyed "a few weeks later."

FIFTEEN RAIL UNIONS OFFER THIRD APPEAL

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Representatives of 15 railroad non-operating unions decided to appeal today (2 p. m. Eastern War Time) before an emergency board, the third since their wage dispute began more than a year ago.

It was indefinite, however, whether the unions would make an unconditional presentation of their case, which would imply an agreement to abide by the board's recommendation. The unions previously were unwilling to go along with President Roosevelt's proposed arbitration because they and the carriers were unable to agree on the scope of the issues which the President would decide. The unions contend that the only issue is overtime after 40 hours a week. They argued that they have accepted the recommendation of the previous board for increases of four to ten cents an hour and that these increases no longer are reviewable. The railroads take the position that the entire wage dispute is subject to review as a single issue.

Seek Agreement

The unions have been unable to obtain an interpretation of the scope of the authority given to the third board.

Three transportation brotherhoods—conductors, firemen and switchmen—meanwhile have been meeting informally with the carriers in an attempt to arrive at some understanding. The President has offered those three groups the same amount of money—a total of nine cents an hour and a week's vacation—that he awarded to the trainmen and engineers, provided that they definitely cancel their strike other than the merely postponing it for the period of government operation and sign an agreement on the same terms as the latter two.

The three hold out brotherhoods, however, contend that those terms mean a wage "freeze" until the cessation of hostilities. They claim they have not been able to obtain any official assurance to the contrary and are unwilling to bind themselves for such an indefinite period.

Use Airport Only When "Necessary"

Philadelphia, Jan. 13 (AP)—The city's Municipal airport will remain closed to all commercial aviation and the Army and Navy will use the field only when "compelling necessity requires," Mayor Bernard Samuel says.

The mayor made the announcement yesterday after meeting with the Interdepartmental Traffic Control committee, composed of representatives of the Civil Aeronautics administration, the Civil Aeronautics board and the War and Navy departments in Washington.

The Army and Navy "have instructed their air forces and commands not to use Municipal airport unless, compelling military necessity requires," the mayor said.

"Every effort is being made to resume air transportation in Philadelphia and the further development of the Northeast airport, with the assurance that all interested governmental agencies will cooperate to that end."

County Tax Rate Is Unchanged

The Adams county tax rate was continued for another year at the same rate set last year—2 mills for the county institutional district and 4 1/2 mills for the county funds—by the county commissioners at their regular meeting Wednesday.

The tax was lowered last year from three mills to two for the institutional district. Collections of taxes however have been so much better this year, it was stated, that income to the county has been sufficient to allow continuation of the lowered rate.

Johnstown Editor Goes Back To Sea

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—John Sheridan, managing editor of the Johnstown, Pa., Democrat, is going back to sea, a War Shipping Administration official has announced.

Considerable past sea experience prompted Sheridan to answer an appeal by the WSA for former sailors to help ease a shortage of urgently needed seamen, the official said.

Sheridan reports for duty as a second mate in Tampa, Florida, today.

BULLETS TRIM N. CUMBERLAND QUINTET 43-31

"Ben" Bream's Gettysburg college dribblers chalked up their second straight victory here Wednesday evening by walloping the New Cumberland Reception Center quintet 43-31.

The Bullets led from start to finish but several times the soldiers pulled up to close quarters and late in the third period the Bream-men found their margin whittled to 23-22.

Vince Parnell once again stole the show and for the second successive game tallied 25 points.

Gettysburg got off to a 7-0 lead on goals by Parnell, a pair by Barnhill and a foul by Parnell. Gingerlich broke the ice for the visitors with a long shot. Foul tosses by Roberts and Barnhill gave the Bullets a 9-2 advantage at the close of the period.

Visitors Spurt

Scoring was more free in the second period with the teams matching point for point, Gettysburg leading 20-12 at half time.

New Cumberland slowly cut into the Bullets' lead in the third period and after about seven and a half minutes of play had elapsed brought the score to 23-22. The reserves of the Bullets showed their mettle at this stage and quickly pulled their team out in front. Orth and Changlin landed fouls and then Sheppard looped a pair of quick shots to give the locals a 29-22 margin at the quarter.

Play Here Saturday

The Bullets put the game on ice early in the last period, Changlin looping a foul and Orth and Parnell goals. From that point on there was little doubt as to the ultimate outcome.

On Saturday evening the Middletown Air Service Command quintet will oppose the Bullets here. Squadron D will meet Squadron E of the local Alrcrew Detachment in the preliminary game.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—Risking a long-range prediction: The post-war sports boom you've been hearing about will be in the amateur, rather than the professional, field.

Pro sports won't find the going very easy under the proposed national service law, although some may survive. . . . Meanwhile college athletics get the benefit of Navy support and leaders feel certain that any demobilization plan will include subsidies of some sort to encourage boys to resume their college studies.

That should equip the colleges with mature, experienced athletes and at the same time eliminate the lure of a little quick dough for playing professionally. . . . Another prediction: If all this takes place, the colleges will spill their own racket by hoisting prices to five bucks for any $150 football game, just as they did back in the twenties.

ANONYMOUS ADMIRAL

When Admiral William Halsey returned from the South Pacific just in time to see the Shrine East-West football game New Year's Day, he tried to slip into his seat without being recognized. . . . He almost had succeeded when his foot slipped and landed on the toes of an Army private. . . . "Ow," protested the soldier, "look where you're going, Mac."

The admiral turned and the private, recognizing the grin he had seen in newspaper photos, flushed and snapped into a salute. . . . Then he stuck out his other foot and asked: "Please step on that, too."

SHORTS AND SHELLS

Although Miami odd experts figure it's a 1,000 to 1 shot that anyone will get beamed by a falling coconut, Hialeah park is having them removed from the tall palm trees along the Paddock promenade. Drum-beater Dave Woods explains: "Longshots have been known to score at Hialeah. . . . Lefty LaChance, the Lewistown, Maine, featherweight, has been given a medical discharge from the Marines and Freddy Archer, the Newark, New Jersey, lightweight, is expecting the same from the Navy before long. . . . Hugh Luby, second sacker coming up to the Giants, set a minor league record by playing 866 consecutive games with Oakland, California."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Tim Cohane, New York World Telegram: "The Yankee situation has several angles unfavorable to a sale. For one thing, the Yankees are Ruthless. For another, so is Judge Landis."

SERVICE DEPT.

Four days before the Army-Navy "Lily Bowl" football game in Bermuda, Danny Vargo, the sailor tail-back from Akron, Ohio, requested special liberty "to celebrate the Navy victory." He got a three-day pass. . . . When the "Rebels" and "Davyankies" played a couple of football games recently at a South Pacific Marine base, the only casualty was Cpl. Dom DeFalco of Hoboken, New Jersey. Dom, an officer of the Hoboken Master Barbers' association, naturally was chosen as umpire. . . . and he became so flustered by the intense rivalry that he called a Yankee out after only two strikes.

SEMINARY FIVE OPENS TONIGHT

The Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary cagers will open their season this evening when they meet Carson Long Institute at New Bloomfield. Elizabethtown college will be met at Elizabethtown Friday night.

A squad of 14 men has been drilling daily in the Hotel Gettysburg annex gymnasium under the tutelage of Kent Gilbert.

Three members of last year's squad, Gene Smith, Jim Shannon and Quent Garman, are scheduled as starters.

Other members of the squad include Gordon Folkeme, Morris Zumburn, Herm Stumppe, Fred Wentz, George Bass, Howard McCarney, Ellwood Moreland, Emory Ackerman, Paul Whitmoyer, John Spangler and Edgar Koehnlein.

The Angels are also scheduled to meet Shippensburg State Teachers' college, Susquehanna university, Johns Hopkins university, Western Maryland Cadets and the Gettysburg college freshmen.

IRISH MENTOR OPTIMISTIC ON 1944 FOOTBALL

By FRANK LEAHY

(Director of athletics and football coach at Notre Dame, the nation's ranking No. 1 team of 1943)

Notre Dame, Ind., Jan. 13 (AP)—The 1943 football season produced many outstanding players and some of the greatest games in football history, but the real heroes of the game last fall were the coaches of those colleges, not aligned with the Navy training program, who decided to continue football with what they had, win, lose or draw.

Acting on the theory that what was important to have during peacetime, was even more important to have during wartime, these colleges fielded young, inexperienced teams. But at the same time, they afforded an opportunity for countless young men to participate in a competitive sport and also provided wholesome, clean cut recreation for thousands of spectators in every section of America.

Ask Grid Movies

Very important also, is the fact that servicemen from overseas are requesting more football movies than we are able to supply.

Many people thought it unwise to have these "civilian" teams, composed in the main of 17 and 18 year olds, compete against the more mature teams of Navy training colleges. It is my opinion that this presented an unusual opportunity to these young lads to battle against great odds, thus better fitting themselves for the greater military battles which lie ahead. Many coaches have told me that this very thought was expressed by the players themselves.

Some people may say "It's all right for Coach Leahy to speak that way, he didn't have to depend on 17 and 18 year olds this fall." I hasten to add that during 1944 the Notre Dame team will be in the same predicament, and I am certain that we will have the same reaction from our players as teams like Wisconsin, Illinois, Ohio State, Minnesota, Columbia and many others had this past season.

After the performances of the 17 and 18 year olds during the '43 season, coaches all over the country will have to change the philosophy that was so often expressed in the statement "he's a great prospect, but he's only a sophomore." It was definitely established that sophomores and even freshmen can be trusted with important assignments.

Sees More Teams

After the war, young football players will be welcomed on varsity squads the same as the seniors and juniors have been, traditionally. Prospects for the 1944 season, in my opinion, are very bright. Intercollegiate football weather the storm this year. Next year will find many of the colleges who discontinued the sport this past fall, again being represented with teams. Because so many of the college players will be in active service, the teams will be qualified to a greater extent than ever before. I believe that spectators next season will continue to enjoy the wide open, free scoring games that thrilled them this past season.

National League Umpire Recovers

Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 13 (AP)—Umpire John (Ziggy) Sears of the National league has recovered from the serious illness which forced him off the diamond last August and kept him out of the world series.

Now 30 pounds heavier than when he came home for treatment, Sears says he will be able to resume umpiring when the baseball season opens. He officiated in a basketball game this week.

Woman, 83, Dies Of Burns; Babe Rescued

Pittsburgh, Jan. 13 (AP)—A series of fires in sub-freezing weather caused the death of an 83-year-old Sheraden woman and drove seven families from their homes yesterday.

Mrs. Clara Flohr died in South-side hospital after her dress caught fire from an open gas stove. Her husband, John, also 83, partly paralyzed, left his bed and tried to beat the fire out. He was burned on the hands and legs.

In a Mt. Oliver fire, one-year-old Dennis O'Reilly was rescued from his crib on a second-floor bedroom.

Fire Chief John H. Grimm donned a gas mask and battled his way through thick smoke, guided by the child's cries. The mother, washing in the basement, was not aware that the house was afire.

Nelson Shows Form In Tourney Tuneup

San Francisco, Jan. 13 (AP)—Byron Nelson of Toledo, O., one of the favorites to capture the $10,000 San Francisco victory open golf tournament, starting Friday, fired another sub-par round at the Harding Park course yesterday. He carried a 35-36-69 against par 36-36-72.

Tuesday, the first time he played Harding Park, Nelson used 33 strokes on each side.

The 72-hole tournament will be played over a four-day period ending next Monday.

ZIVIC, LAMOTTA CLASH FRIDAY FOR 4TH TIME

By WATSON SPOELSTRA

Detroit, Jan. 13 (AP)—If he didn't have a date next week with his draft board, Fritz Zivic's fistie series with Jack LaMotta might become a road show with real depth of tradition.

Flat-nosed Fritz, last of Pittsburgh's fighting Zivic clan, tackles jolting Jacob of the Bronx tomorrow night at Olympia stadium in the fourth match of a series which LaMotta leads, 2 to 1. New York and Pittsburgh liked the show and so will Detroit, matchmaker Nick Londres declares, pointing to a big advance ticket sale.

Barring such development as draft board business, there's really no reason why the LaMotta-Zivic entourage couldn't make a success of threading its way to California and back to New York just for sheer fistie entertainment. There's not even the reasonable facsimile of a title at stake.

Zivic Confident

Naturally, Fritz thinks he'll beat LaMotta over the 10-round route again tomorrow. In Zivic's book, the series stands 3 to 0 in his favor, although unfortunately the official verdict went against him in one of the two fights at Pittsburgh and in the rubber match last fall at Madison Square Garden in New York.

"LaMotta's the kind of fighter I can beat every night in the week," asserts Fritz. "I'm not so fast as I once was, and I can't catch up with a guy who keeps going back. But LaMotta comes right in, and then I let him have it."

All this time, LaMotta says nothing, but his Detroit record needs no amplification. A relative unknown then, jolting Jake fought his way to fame and a fat bankroll last year in the same ring where he severely hopes to flatten Zivic tomorrow.

All told, Jake had six Detroit bouts that paid him close to $75,000. The record shows five victories, topped by an upset that ended Sugar Ray Robinson's long undefeated streak. His only Detroit defeat came in a return bout with Robinson. Both times LaMotta had Sugar Ray on the floor.

PRO-FOOTBALL HEADS PONDER LARGER LOOP

Chicago, Jan. 13 (AP)—The growing National Football league is trying to put the right foot forward without tripping over itself.

Casting an eye beyond 1944 to the post-war future, executives convened today in the final session of their annual midwinter meeting with action still to be taken on bids for franchises from Buffalo, New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

After spending 15 hours yesterday attempting to determine whether it liked or disliked the feeling of growing pains, the pro circuit, flushed with one of its most successful financial seasons in history in 1943, still pondered problems originally before it—that of expansion.

Three Alternatives

There appeared to be three alternatives emerging from yesterday's blustery oratory:
1.—To continue its pre-war size of 10 teams by having two clubs merge such as Philadelphia and Pittsburgh did last year.
2.—To operate as an 11-team set-up with Boston, which was granted a franchise last June, going into business as a sixth member of the Eastern division.
3.—To accept Buffalo's franchise, backed by Sam Cordovano, line coach under Lou Little for 14 years at Columbia and four other prominent Buffalo business men, and operate as a 12-team league with Buffalo joining the Western division.

It was understood that the league executives were split 50-50 on all three propositions, reacting cautiously in the face of a limited player supply this year and not desiring to bite off more than they can chew.

It was believed that bids for franchises by Los Angeles, which was headed by Bing Crosby and three Chicago sportsmen, and San Francisco, backed singularly by wealthy A. J. Morabito, would either be tabled until the league's spring meeting or be accepted with the understanding that neither city operate until after the war.

MAROONS MEET CHAMBERSBURG IN BIG GAME

Gettysburg high school will take on its most serious contenders for the Southern Division title of the Southern Pennsylvania Interscholastic Basketball league Friday evening when it meets the Chambersburg Trojans at Chambersburg.

Unbeaten in seven starts this year, the Trojans are picked by many to dethrone the Maroons, winners of three straight league and District 3 PIAA diadems.

Friday's winner will have the inside position in the league race although if the Maroons lose they will still have the advantage of facing the Chambersburg outfit here on February 11.

Captain George Leisher, Chambersburg center, has been averaging around 22 points a game this season and is the sparkling star of the Franklin countians. Leisher is one of seven lettermen on the Trojan squad.

The Maroon scrubs will be idle this week, no game having been scheduled with the Chambersburg Reserves.

Other league games listed for Friday night include Waynesboro at Hanover, Mechanicsburg at Hershey and Shippensburg at Carlisle.

HERSHEY BOWS TO CLEVELAND

(By The Associated Press)

Buffalo's Busy Bees go after their fourth straight tonight in a home game with the Providence Reds after whipping the Pittsburgh Hornets, 4-3, in an American Hockey league game in Pittsburgh. It is the only game scheduled in the circuit.

Kobussen sent in a long fast shot from the side of the cage to win for Buffalo after a fierce nip and tuck battle that was tied up twice, the last time midway in the final period.

Cleveland finally managed to beat Hershey, 5-2, after two losses and a tie in earlier meetings with the Eastern division leaders. It was the second Cleveland win over the Bears in 15 starts over the past two years.

Center Tommy Burlington of Cleveland, moved ahead of Wally Kilrea of the Bears in the individual scoring derby as he picked up three points on two goals and an assist. Kilrea had an assist. Burlington has 43 points, Kilrea 41.

Burlington was badly shaken up early in the game but returned to lead his club to a win. Mike Shabaga, center of the first Cleveland line, suffered a broken ankle in the first two minutes of play.

Physicists have suggested that the Appletan layer, highest of the atmospheric layers, has a temperature of about 1600 degrees Fahrenheit.

Just Folks
By Edgar A. Guest

THAT OTHER I

Just once, before my time to die,
I'd like to be that other I;
That other I who shakes his head
At many a careless word I've said;
That other I who counsels "More!"
More, even than the day before,
Still more to be and more to do,
With all the strength allowed to you!"

That other I; that dreamer vain,
Who points to goals this I should gain;
Who whispers: "Don't be so afraid!
Do more to cheer; do more to aid;
Do more to help your fellow man,
If you've the will, you can! You can!"
Those little deeds. Don't let them wait!
Some other time may be too late."

That other I folks never see,
Because he's known alone to me.
Keeps hunting, day and night: "Do this.
Here is a chance you shouldn't miss."
But wrapped in self, and love of sham,

I stay the careless man I am,
Wishing I had the pluck to try
Just once to be that other I.

Today's Talk
By George Matthew Adams

CARRIERS OF FAITH

Enshrined deep in the hearts of thousands of wounded boys is the insignia of The Red Cross, exemplified in the loyal, faithful and merciful Red Cross nurses. Endowed with patience of a heavenly order, and tireless in their devotion, they go from cot to cot and from boy to boy—God's Carriers of Faith and Courage.

Braving the seas, and obvious of danger, ever sharing their strength wherever they are called upon to serve, they are the silent, uncomplaining heroines of peace and war.
Angels of Light, I like to call them—assistants to the Great Physician.

Mothers, your representatives upon the fields of battle, and in the hospitals all over various lands, are these Red Cross nurses, whose first thought always is to serve. They are carriers of the very faith that you express daily for your boy in each and every prayer that you utter, if that boy is among the wounded.

By choice these noble women have dedicated their strength and their very lives to the task of cheering, healing, and rebuilding the faith and courage of those whom they serve. You don't read much about them in the newspapers, and they make no big headlines, but God's eyes follow them around wherever their footsteps trace, and their smiles are benedictions, like a silent prayer.

When you contribute to the Red Cross, you give to the noblest organization ever created. And you give to these Carriers of Faith, who at this moment may be unselfishly serving your own boy, if you have one in the service, upon some foreign soil or in some hospital. We upon the home front little know of all that is expendable by these never-failing servants. If we did, we would complain about nothing so long as this tragic war continues.

The demand for these nurses is very great. And it will be increasingly so from now on. The opportunity to serve is very great, as well. Gratitude for this service will be endless. If you are able to serve, contact your local Red Cross organization—and become a Carrier of Faith, to numberless fighters within the hearts of the motherhood of the world.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Henri-isms."

For a short time, the young oyster is a free swimmer before it settles down to its anchored existence.

Frank R. Peckman Is Elected
Head of Town Council: Gettysburg changed its administrative clothing on Friday evening, with the faces of five new and one re-elected member around the town council table.
Frank R. Peckman, of the firm of Peckman and Ott, was unanimously elected president of the council, succeeding Charles B. Dougherty, who is now serving as a regular member of council. Following are the newly elected officers:

Mr. Peckman, president; C. B.
Kittmiller, secretary; William G.
Weaver, treasurer; J. Donald Swope, Esq., solicitor; A. V. Weikert, chief of police; J. A. Tawney, street commissioner; J. Ralph Redding, fire marshal; C. H. Moose, janitor and market master.

John Shealer's First Official Act
Is To Demolish Moonshine: John C.
Shealer's first official act as sheriff of Adams county was to destroy a moonshine liquor still Monday afternoon. Twelve bottles of beer were also destroyed.

The still was hacked to pieces in the jail yard in the presence of John P. Butt, Jr., new district attorney; his predecessor, Raymond F. Topper, Esq.; Ex-sheriff John W. Hartman, and Blaine E. Bixler, of Mt. Pleasant township, whom Sheriff Shealer has chosen as his deputy.

Ruhr Sees End of Difficulties:
Berlin, Jan. 12—The Ruhr's hymn of hate is deadened.
The curse that greeted French occupation one year ago Thursday has been stilled. Hate still burns in many a Ruhrer's heart, but the desire to live is the strongest passion that the Ruhr now shows.

And the Ruhr, despite months of "passive resistance," followed by a hunger wave, now believes that the path is opening to a final settlement with France which will give the Ruhr and Rhineland a chance to work.

Germany Said To Be Arming:
Paris, Jan. 10—Some anxiety was expressed in French official circles Wednesday as to indications declared to have been observed in the German press that Berlin would find it impossible to facilitate resumption of the work of the Allied military control commission in Germany on January 10 as had been promised.

In quarters close to President Poincare it was said that in this case the Germans appeared to be following their habit of backing up on promised concessions every time
France begins to talk conciliatingly.

Premier Poincare regards the functioning of the control organism as more necessary than ever, in view of the reports received by France indicating the Germans are arming secretly.

BUYERS CAN'T GET LANCASTER
TOBACCO CROP

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 13 (AP)—Tobacco buyers retired from the rich Conestoga valley of Lancaster county today and told farmers to let them know when they are ready to sell their 37,000,000 pound tobacco crop.

The farmers have held out against the insistent demands of more than 700 buyers since the War Food Administration lifted the freeze on tobacco sales Tuesday. The growers refuse to sell their crop until the Office of Price Administration places higher price ceilings on tobacco.

Yesterday the farmers received a pledge of Congressional support in their demand for higher ceiling prices. Senator James J. Davis (R.)
and Joseph P. Guiley (D), pledged their support and cooperation to growers in securing a conference with the Office of Price Administration and the War Food Administration for discussion of the price controversy.

Seek Adjustment
"The growers have a legitimate complaint," Davis said, "the ceiling price should be higher." Davis said he has been working "for months" on the problem and would accompany a delegation of growers to the OPA in an effort to obtain an adjustment.

The OPA, which expressed willingness to hear any complaint the growers had, told the farmers the agency's willingness to hear complaints did not insure an upward price revision after a hearing.

"The price ceilings set in October for Pennsylvania leaf tobaccos are considered fair and equitable," the OPA informed its district office at Harrisburg. "Lancaster growers must be prepared to present complete evidence that present prices cause hardship and are out of line with prices in other areas."

Officers of the Lancaster County
Tobacco Growers' association said they met last night and prepared their case which both state Senators promised would be presented at an OPA hearing as soon as possible.

Present ceiling prices on tobacco are 21 cents a pound for wrapper leaf, seven cents a pound for filler and ten cents for straight strip.

INSULT TO INJURY
Farmington, Utah, (AP)—The

blue seal showing its identity, but that didn't stop thieves. Patrolman a window of the parked machine

LIBERTY CARDS
New York, (AP)—Christmas cards sent by the New York public lieyebrow when first received.

thought of many recipients, before opening the envelope, was that they had overdue books.

Tulsa, Okla., (AP)—Ray Doris, arriving home from work, found a

do about it.

"I know what I'd do about those chickens," dreamed Police Sergeant M. M. Leavell, off the record.

NEED MORE TAX FOR STRIKERS

Philadelphia, Jan. 13 (AP)—City councilmen today termed striking public works department employees' demands for a flat 10 cents an hour wage increase "a holdup" and claimed they would have to impose new city taxes to grant the increase.

Robert Longenag, International representative of the state, county and municipal employees union, (AFL), said the 3,000 strikers wanted the increase with "no ifs, and or buts," and added "they won't go back to work until they get it."

A previous proposal by the city to grant the workers a lump sum of $400,000 to be used as a wage increase was refused by the workers' representatives.

Longenag said the workers were ready to begin their second strike week today unless their demands are met. Meanwhile the litter in the city streets increased and rubbish and garbage remained uncollected as street cleaners, garbage collectors and water department employees stayed at home.

Robert Thompson, state labor mediator, and Charles A. Spangler, director of mediation of the state department of Labor and Industry were reported to be arranging another meeting of city and union leaders.

CHINA WILL BE

and Buddhism, the three great religions of the Chinese, all accepted for centuries without any intolerance.

In modern times the "Three Principles of the People," of the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen, "father of modern China," are a basis for democracy. Under Dr. Sun's principles nationalism was first to be developed, then democracy and "people's livelihood," some form of social development, are to be promoted. The plan of Dr. Sun was established for a period of many years of gradual improvement.

Other promising factors which Prof. Idle said will help bring China to democracy are the fact that the present leadership of the country is planning to allow the Communist party in China equal rights with the present party in power; that many of the leaders are U.S. educated, and the fact of the Christianity of Generalissimo Chiang and the Soong family. The Communist party in China, he pointed out, is not similar to the Russian communists but instead advocates a program of simple reform in the interests of the poor.

The members purchased $100 in war bonds and stamps during the session. Mrs. E. W. Thomas and Mrs. Carl E. Oyer were in charge of the sales.

PRICES PAID STATE FARMERS REMAIN STEADY

Harrisburg, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Department of Agriculture's Crop Reporting Service said today that prices paid Pennsylvania farmers for principal agricultural products remained fairly steady during the month ended December 15, compared with the previous 30-day period.

Miles Horst, secretary of agriculture, pointed out all grains showed price advances of from two to eight cents a bushel and added "during the current feed shortage farmers are the biggest buyers of feed grains and are paying proportionately more for processed feeds than they can get through selling the grain."

"Relatively few farmers have grain to sell," he declared, "and the average farm has only enough home-grown feed grains to last through February."

8-Cent Increase The crop reporting service said Pennsylvania farmers averaged $1.36 for any grain they might have sold during the month, an advance of eight cents a bushel from November.

"The recent raising of the ceiling price nine cents to $1.16 at Chicago apparently has had little effect on the Pennsylvania supply and many farmers must pay at least $1.50 to $1.60 per bushel or more," the agency said.

Figuring prices obtained from 1909 to 1914 as 100, the index of all Pennsylvania farm products in mid-December was 215, unchanged from November. On the same basis, the prices paid by farmers for all living and operating expenses showed an index of 168, an advance of one point over November. On the other hand, farmers' purchasing power dropped one point, to 128-compared with 116 a year ago.

All livestock prices received by Pennsylvania farmers were the same in December as in November except for hogs which dropped 40 cents to $13.66 per hundred pounds, live weight.

16 TRUCKS BURNED Meadville, Pa., Jan. 13 (AP)—Fire destroyed 16 automobiles and trucks and a building yesterday, doing damage estimated by the owners, Johnson Brothers, at $25,000.

Dry Forces Get Official Hearing

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Prohibitionists had a one day stand before a House committee in their news campaign for a bone dry law today while a Senate group resumed its search for the liquor that can't be found in your favorite grog shop.

The prohibition advocates appeared in support of legislation sponsored by Rep. Bryson (D-SC) who arranged for a judiciary subcommittee session to accommodate witnesses who happened, he said, to be in town on other business.

Bryson, laughing at opposition reports that a $10,000,000 dry lobby fund had been raised, said some of those who wanted to be heard today were too poor to finance a return trip to the capital.

Hence, Chairman Hobbs (D-Ala.) said the subcommittee would hear, at today's session, only proponents of the legislation, which would outlaw any beverage containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol by volume until after demobilization of the armed forces.

Start To Fight Black Markets

Harrisburg, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Labor Advisory committee of the Harrisburg Office of Price Administration today announced plans for forming a trade union Army to fight black markets and see that price control is enforced.

The group called for organization of labor advisory councils in each of the 10 counties of the district to direct the campaign. Complaint forms will be distributed to all unions who will reproduce them for circulation among members.

Frank J. Loftus, acting district director, said the drive "will sound the death knell of black markets and price violations in this area." He reported 125,000 trade unionists among the 1,000,000 population of the district which includes Dauphin, Adams, Franklin, Cumberland, Lebanon, York, Lancaster, Perry, Juniata and Mifflin counties.

NAZI ANNOUNCEMENT London, Jan. 13 (AP)—A DNB broadcast from Berlin today said that among new arrivals at Gibraltar were 62 more Allied merchantmen, and the British battleship Warspite, two French and two British torpedo boats, 10 Corvettes and one submarine.

Teach Soldiers Facts On Enemy

State College, Pa., Jan. 13 (AP)—Special courses for service men on what the enemy is like, believes, hates and hopes to accomplish were advocated today by Dr. Kinsley Smith, Pennsylvania State college psychology professor, to keep morale at a high pitch.

He said the Germans have been doing it for years and the results have been powerful even though lies and misrepresentations have been the Nazis chief weapons.

Dr. Smith proposed adoption of the Nazis' general pattern of instruction, but with substitution of straight-from-the-shoulder facts for the lies and half-lies.

"Our morale is good now," he added, "but like any fighting weapon, it can be improved and fortified for the future."

Employee Transfer Is Constitutional

Harrisburg, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Justice department today ruled that the 1943 acts transferring supervision of Pennsylvania inheritance tax employees from the Democratic Auditor General to the Republican Secretary of Revenue are "constitutional in all respects."

The opinion, asked by Secretary of Revenue David W. Harris, declared:

"Pursuant to the terms of said legislation the Registers of Wills of the several counties are legally bound to pay from transfer inheritance taxes of resident decedents collected by them, the salaries and proper expenses of investigators, appraisers, clerks and other employees appointed by the Secretary of Revenue to assist the registers in the collection of such taxes."

Veteran Officer Fired For Neglect

Pittsburgh, Jan. 13 (AP)—Whether he's on duty or not, a policeman's obligated to chase purse snatchers. So ruled the police trial board yesterday in dismissing Patrolman Charles Neubauer, a veteran of 24 years' service, after hearing Miss Nellie King testify that he refused to help her catch a thief who had her pocketbook containing $54.

"He told me he wasn't on duty," said Miss King.

ALLIES BLAST JAP SUPPLIES IN NEW DRIVE

By ROBERT EUNSON

Allied Airforce Headquarters, New Guinea, Jan. 13 (AP)—Moving swiftly in the wake of advancing Allied fighting fronts in the Southwest Pacific, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's air arm has shifted its bases forward and is smacking the Japanese along their vital supply and troop lines.

Within the past week the Fifth Army airforce has struck 24 heavy blows at enemy bases along the northeast coast of New Guinea, using heavy and medium bombers operating from airfields north of the towering Owen Stanley mountains.

The intensity of these attacks in which from 50 to 100 tons of bombs have been dropped apparently has convinced the Japanese that their hold on Northeastern New Guinea is doomed, for they are evacuating troops from the coastal area between Sio and Saidor, where Australian and American ground forces are closing the gap in a squeeze play.

New Jungle Bases

Port Moresby, on the south side of the Owen Stanley range, once was the Fifth Airforce's principal base, but it is practically deserted now.

In the days before the Allied ground successes pushed the enemy northward, planes crossing the mountains on bombing missions met with hazardous weather which often frustrated the attacks almost before they began.

Now, bases are being carved out of jungles on the other side of the mountains. Tractors and bulldozers driven by "lost" American boys already have built fields from which bombing missions are made daily.

The recent powerful bombing attacks, directed by Lt. Gen. George C. Kenney, commander of Allied Air forces in the Southwest Pacific, were made on seven enemy positions along 225 miles of coast.

YANKEE NAVY POUNDING JAP ESCAPE SHIPS

Advanced Allied Headquarters, New Guinea, Jan. 13 (AP)—Swift patrol-torpedo boats of the United States Navy, darting at night among barges crowded with Japanese, are blasting to the bottom of Vitiaz strait many of the enemy trying to escape the jungle trap closing on them along the Huon peninsula coast of New Guinea.

Headquarters of General MacArthur reported today the sinking of nine barges and the severe damaging of 11 others by PT boats operating in darkness offshore between Saidor and Sio.

"Many of the barges contained enemy troops," the communique said.

(The capacity of these self-propelled barges is such that the resultant loss of life could have ranged into the hundreds.)

Avoid Bombers

Australians now are battling northwestward within five miles of Sio. From Saidor, invaded by U. S. Sixth Army elements from the sea Jan. 2, the other jaw of the nutcracker is being pushed southeastward. Japanese trapped within the approximately 55 intervening miles are taking to barges, preferring night movements apparently in an effort to avoid Allied bombers.

In all, headquarters reported today the aerial and Naval destruction of 43 more barges.

At least 130 barges, including more than a score carrying troops, have been destroyed or damaged along the northeastern New Guinea coast since the invasion of Saidor stepped up the Allied offensive against Madang.

In the Madang area, which has been hit by more than 1,000 tons of bombs since Jan. 1, headquarters announced a new 126-ton assault by Liberator against supply dumps and gun positions.

At Borgen bay, New Britain, Marines battling for Hill 600, a strategic observation post, achieved slight progress and counted 300 more Nipponese dead, bringing the Japanese total to more than 2,400 since the invasion there opened Dec. 26. A spokesman estimated that Marine casualties, including wounded, approximated 400.

Sixty-five miles to the southeast at Arawe, which was invaded Dec. 15, American forces were said by the spokesman to be "still right there and on the job." He labelled as "a complete exaggeration" a Tokyo broadcast claiming the Japanese had recaptured Arawe.

On the northeastern end of New Britain, Mitchell bombers flying from Solomons bases struck Monday night at Rabaul's Lakunai airfield.

Free Miners On Tapping Charge

Sunbury, Pa., Jan. 13 (AP)—Common Pleas Judge H. W. Cummings has dismissed temporary injunctions against four free lance coal miners accused by the commonwealth of tapping a coal barrier on Northumberland county lands owned by the Reading Coal and Iron company and the Penn-Will Coal Mining company.

Judge Cummings said there was no evidence the miners were removing the barrier. Those accused were Charles Bianchi, Alfred Miller, Peter Ibanez and August Signors-ratti. An injunction was continued against truck driver Andrew Skrzia, the court said, since he was identified as working directly at the barrier.

Shortage Of Coal In Pennsylvania Called "Menace To Health" By Officials

MINERS MAY BE ASKED TO WORK SUNDAYS

(By The Associated Press)

Pennsylvanians, situated in the heart of the nation's anthracite fields, today went begging for fuel as the state's coal operators and dealers reported there was no sign of immediate relief from the worst anthracite shortage in many years. Hospitals, institutions and thousands of homes were scraping the bottoms of coal bins. Residents within sight of the mines at Scranton and Wilkes-Barre were having difficulty getting coal.

New York city and New Jersey also reported coal shortages, but the situation was most acute in the Philadelphia area where the chief of the public health department called it "a menace to health."

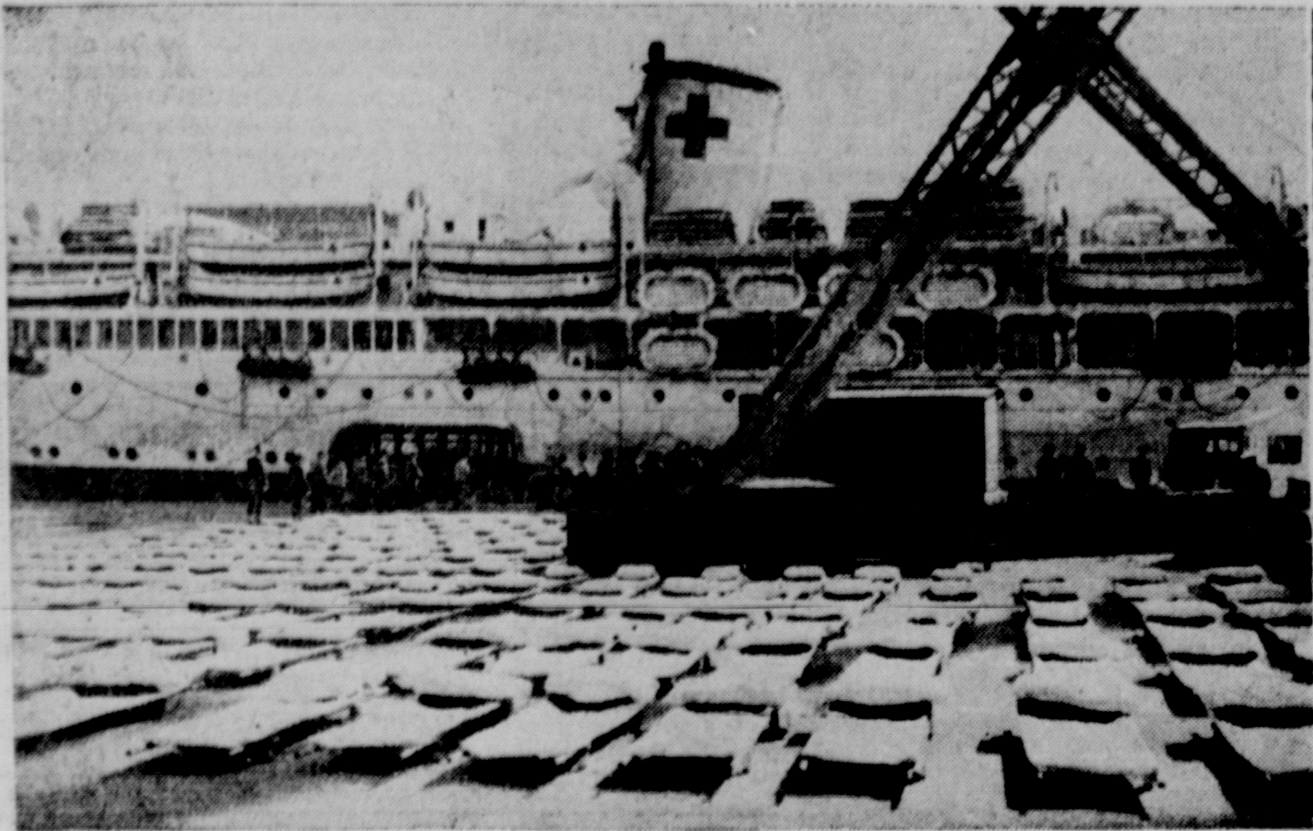

Anthracite operators blamed the critical situation on a shortage of manpower in the mines and predicted a little increase in the supply this winter. In the rich bituminous producing area of Pittsburgh dealers reported they were unable to keep their bins filled.

May Tap Industries

New York reported slight relief with the delivery of emergency shipments of bituminous, movement of the supplies was held up by a shortage of yard and train crews at the Allentown junction of the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

The Solid Fuels Administration reported in Philadelphia that huge reserves of small-size anthracite in the storage yards of the city's big

Litters Await Debarking War Casualties

Rows of litters on the dock of an East Coast port await wounded American soldiers who will be debarked from the U. S. Army Hospital Ship "Acadia" (background), which returned to the United States on Jan. 5 with casualties from the North African-Italy-European theatre of war.

industries might be tapped if some other relief was not forthcoming.

The first move in this direction was in the form of an inventory made of all available stocks by the federal agency, to determine where diversions of shipments could be made immediately for distribution to retail channels.

Roger Jones, president of the Pennsylvania Retail Coal Dealers Association said this method may be used to supply the estimated 12,000 homes without fuel in the city.

May Work Sunday

The Philadelphia Record reported that in a telephone conversation with Solid Fuels Administrator Harold L. Ickes regarding the feasibility of having miners work on Sunday to alleviate the situation, Ickes said the plan was "very interesting" and "I will look into it at once."

James Williams, a member of the executive committee of the Philadelphia Coal Dealers Association, said

"a single Sunday's overtime work by 90,000 anthracite miners would produce 250,000 tons of coal."

That amount of coal, Williams said would break the back of the crisis and "alleviate the situation on the whole East coast." The public, he added, would "willingly pay about 50 cents a ton extra" to meet double-time payment for miners working on Sunday.

In the meantime coal operators claimed the industry needed at least

TRUMAN BALKS LABOR DRAFT SUGGESTIONS

By HOWARD FLEGER

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—President Roosevelt's request for legislation to draft civilian labor for the home front ran into new and unexpected opposition today from Chairman Truman (D-Mo.) of the Senate War Investigating committee, for years an Administration booster.

At the same time Chairman Reynolds (D-NC) of the Senate Military Affairs committee expressed doubt that a national service bill re-offered by Senator Austin (R-Vt) could survive committee opposition.

Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky said he had heard nothing about the likelihood that a White House bill, reportedly drafted

10,000 additional workers to bring production up to a point where supplies would meet the demand. Edward W. Griffith, vice president and general manager of the Glen Allen Coal company said his company alone could use 2,000 additional men.

This season's output of anthracite will be 5,000,000 tons short of the nation's needs, a spokesman for the anthracite producers said. He declared strikes last year were responsible for the loss of 5,500,000 tons. Part of the blame for the shortage he placed on the public, saying they failed to heed pleas for conservation.

by Chairman Paul V. McNutt of the War Manpower commission, would be presented to follow up the President's recommendation.

White House Confab

Two top labor leaders, William Green of the AFL and Philip Murray of the CIO, emerged from a conference with President Roosevelt yesterday with "nothing to say." They previously had issued scorching statements against the proposal. And those statements still stand, they said.

Green said he guessed the White House talk was off-the-record.

The military committee showed no disposition to hurry on the Austin bill, which would require men and women civilians to register for possible labor conscription. It postponed further hearing until next week and Reynolds said several weekly meetings would be held before any action is taken.

Truman, whose committee has investigated practically every phase

Fun Was Brief—And So Was Money

Pittsburgh, Jan. 13 (AP)—You can't see a lot of the city on $1.60, particularly in the winter-time, but you can get awfully cold and hungry.

That was the conclusion of Helen Marcovitch, 11, and Mary Jean Holtz, 10, so they hunted up a policeman yesterday and asked him how they could get back to their homes in suburban Carriak.

Here's the story they told—finally: Helen's mother had given them $1.60 to buy a cake and some butter. On the way to the store, they decided to spend the money on themselves so they boarded a downtown streetcar.

They had a big time while the money lasted—gorged themselves on banana splits and potato chips, bought nail polish, cigarets and holders, and went to a movie.

After the show, they were afraid to go home. So they crept into a coal bin at one corner of Pittsburgh's Golden Triangle and huddled close together through the night.

When they approached the policeman, Mrs. Marcovitch's $1.60 had dwindled to 19 cents but Helen still clutched her ration book tightly in her little fist.

Washington, Pa., Jan. 13 (AP) — Less than a month after Charles W. Buckley ended 56 consecutive years service as foreman at Hazel-Atlas Glass company's plant here he died Tuesday of a heart attack. He quit working Dec. 17. A widow and five children survive.

FINE TEAMWORK AT BETHLEHEM PLANT LAUDED

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Employer-employee "teamwork" of the Bethlehem Steel company was hailed in the House by Representative Walter (D-Pa.) as an "outstanding record" of friendly labor-management relations which "must ultimately spell defeat for our enemies."

The Eastern congressman said the House had heard during the past few weeks "a great deal about interference with the war effort by labor disturbances," and pointed to the Bethlehem relationship as "the other side of the picture."

"I call your attention to the record made by the Bethlehem Steel company during the past year," he said. "This outstanding record was made not because this great corporation has as its head one of the leading industrialists of the nation, or that the employees of this great corporation are more competent, more loyal, or more patriotic than are the other workers in this nation, but because of the teamwork between the employer and the employee, the kind of teamwork that must ultimately spell defeat for our enemies."

He said he was convinced that

Would Free Unions From Tax Reports

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) announced today he will move to strike from the $2,275,000,000 tax increase bill a clause which would require labor unions, cooperatives and similar organizations to file annual financial reports with the treasury.

These organizations are not now required to pay income taxes. In seeking the information returns, the senate and house tax framing committees declared frankly they wanted to give the treasury an opportunity to determine whether taxes shouldn't be levied on such organizations.

Labor spokesmen have opposed the move vigorously, describing it as the opening wedge in an effort to exact income taxes from unions, which they contend are non-profit making organizations.

everyone who heard the report of Bethlehem Steel's President Eugene G. Grace that the company in 1943 turned out better than one ship a day "was convinced that the men and management of that company have a full appreciation of the stern struggle we are engaged in, and are determined to work to the limit of their ability to bring the war to an early and successful conclusion."

Walter had Grace's report inserted in the congressional record.

Emmitsburg

Emmitsburg—Mrs. George D. Paxson, 107 West Main street, recently received a letter from her husband Captain Paxson, who is stationed overseas, in which he compared local prices to those found where he is located. Excerpts from the letter follow:

"You spoke of having to pay $7 per bushel for peaches that used to cost $1.50. That is quite a raise but what do you think of the price over here? I saw some medium sized peaches in a store window the other day and they were priced to sell at five shillings apiece which to you would be $1.00 each. How's that for costs. Can you imagine carrying a bushel at that price? And then, boy, oh boy, you speak of fried chicken and hot rolls, and right now thinking about such food makes me long for my native state and home, Maryland. Tell the kids that I send to them my love and express hopes that the time will soon come when I'll be back with them. Gosh they will be so big I'll hardly know them. Tell them to keep up their prayers. I send to you and the children all my love." Captain Paxson states that American tobacco is one of the luxuries, and takes the lead in a trade for native products. Candy is a close second, and at one time lemons were in demand.

Sergeant Joseph F. Burdner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burdner, 120 East Main street, has been transferred from Camp Lima, Las Vegas, New Mexico, to the 6th Ferry Service Depot, Allegheny County Airport, Pittsburgh.

Samuel Baumgardner, of near town, reports that their son, Sergeant J. Stuart who was injured in an automobile accident en route from his home to his station at Fort George Meade, Maryland, is improving at the Army hospital at Carlisle Barracks, Carlisle.

Mr. and Mrs. John Saffer, 225 North Seton avenue, recently purchased the brick dwelling at 215-217 South Seton avenue from St. Joseph's college.

A-S Pat Freeman, son of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Freeman, 109 East Main street, in a letter to Mrs. Emma Nunemaker, 530 West Main street, states that he has completed the preliminary tests required of flight students, and that he is now classified as a pilot. He is stationed at the University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hilary Sanders, of near town, have three sons in the service—Cpl. Leo in the Coast Artillery, Fort Monroe, Virginia; Pvt. Joseph in a band, overseas, and Pvt. Francis, Staging Project De-

State Adheres To Defense Program

Harrisburg, Jan. 13 (AP)—The War department's order limiting practice blackouts and daytime tests to one every three months in Atlantic and Pacific coast areas will change nothing in Pennsylvania civilian defense plans, Executive Director Ralph Cooper Hutchison has announced.

Hutchison declared in a statement "this state already left the calling of blackouts entirely to the Army and instituted a monthly mobilization of civilian defense forces."

"We understand, however, that bombings, sabotage and natural disasters are still probable," added the director. "Therefore, as requested by the Army announcement, the protective services in Pennsylvania will be continued and will not be de-activated."

"This has already been determined and announced by the State Council of Defense and will remain in force until the war is won or until the Army announces the protective services unnecessary." Pennsylvania was included in the Atlantic Coast area by the Federal Office of Civilian Defense last December.

MINTER'S

Welcome these Soldiers of Victory!

THE "shock troops" of your Government's 4th War Loan Drive—a drive that must raise $14 billion to put the punch behind the punch that may make 1944 the date of doom for the Nazis—will soon call on you to buy your personal quota of Bonds. For, of the $14 billion that must be raised in this Drive, $5.5 billion worth must come from individuals.

Welcome these American men and women—5 million of them—who are not only buying their share of Bonds but are giving their time to call on you, personally.

Every office, every plant, every home, every individual in America has a quota to meet. Your personal quota is at least one extra $100 Bond. That's above your regular Bond buying.

If possible, buy your extra Bonds during this drive at the plant or office where you work. A volunteer Bond worker will sell you there. Otherwise, welcome him to your home when he calls. Or find one in the thousands of retail stores all over the United States. They want to find you—you must help see that they do.

If you are unable to make your purchases from a soldier of victory be sure to go to one of these other special War Bond stations to buy your extra Bonds:

BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES
U. S. POST OFFICES
SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
BROKERAGE AND INVESTMENT FIRMS
MOTION PICTURE THEATRES
CREDIT UNIONS
CERTAIN GOVERNMENT AGENCIES
NUMEROUS CORPORATIONS AND FIRMS FOR THEIR EMPLOYEES

PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS
NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
MISCELLANEOUS BOND BOOTHS
RADIO STATIONS
RETAIL STORES
NEWSPAPERS

Remember your job in this Drive is to buy more than your share of Bonds. That's the only way you can be certain you are still backing the attack. So be ready to meet your War Bond representative with an open check book.

This sticker in your window means you have bought 4th War Loan securities.

Let's All BACK THE ATTACK!
